

I was very disappointed to hear that NJ's do not call list is in jeopardy. The do not call list has brought my family so much peace; it is a God-Sent. I do not want anyone calling me that is trying to sell something, or doing marketing research, or campaigning for public office. When I close my door at night, I should have the right to privacy, which in my opinion should include stopping unwanted solicitation over the telephone.